Dear Dr. McClane,

I'm forwarding the email to Dr. Hughes requesting the IRB letter, as you requested. I also made the request verbally as a reminder of my written request. I was not given a form to follow for the request, so perhaps my request was inadequate. Dr. Hughes had told me that the IRB letter would be forthcoming.

Thank you for your help! I've answered your other question as a reply to your email.

In His grip,

Caroline Geer

Dear Dr. Hughes,

Thank you for your grace and effective guidance. I appreciate everyone's time and thought invested in me today.

Please initiate the IRB assessment. I'll look forward to receiving their letter that will clear me to begin to collect data.

In the meantime, I will be working on the gaps in my Lit Rev and Ch. 3 and back matter as I address the steps you outlined for me.

God bless you all and strengthen you in what He is calling you to do.
