

OGS IRB Application

Dissertation Title: The Relationship Between Race Related Stress And The Perception Of Injustice In Middle Class African Americans: A Quantitative Study

Candidate's Name: Gerald L. Ware

Candidate's Email Address: gware7619@gmail.com

Recruitment Method

- In-person recruitment at a research site
- Electronic recruitment requiring permission (ie, email to a specific organization/group)
- Social media snowball sampling
- Other _____
- I have secured permission to conduct my study from my research site (if applicable).

Verification of Ethical Procedures

I assure the Institutional Review Board of the following:

- I have discussed the ethical considerations of my study with my chair.
- I will protect the confidentiality and rights of participants.
- My study does not involve vulnerable populations such as minors or the incarcerated.
- I will uphold the ethical standards of the Belmont Report (Justice, Beneficence, and Respect for Persons) and OGS's policies.
- I have completed the NIH/CITI certificate for protecting human subjects in research.
- I will ensure data are kept securely for up to three years and then destroyed.

Attachments

- Research Proposal (Chapters 1-3)
- Completed Informed Consent Document
- Recruitment Letter or Email
- Site Permission (if applicable)

Researcher's Statement

I hereby confirm that the information provided is accurate and that I will conduct the research following the ethical guidelines and policies of Omega Graduate School, including adherence to the details outlined in the attached informed consent document.

Researcher's Signature

Gerald L. Ware

Date:

1-25-24