OMEGA GRADUATE SCHOOL SOLIDARITY OF FAITH

The founders and faculty of Omega Graduate School stand in solidarity with the historic Christian faith as founded in Scripture and embodied in the Apostles' Creed and the Nicene Creed and popularly expressed by the following statements:

1. We believe the Bible to be the inspired, the only infallible, authoritative Word of God.
2. We believe that there is one God, eternally existent in three persons: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.
3. We believe in the deity of our Lord Jesus Christ, in His virgin birth, in His sinless life, in His vicarious and atoning death through His shed blood, in His bodily resurrection, in His Ascension to the right hand of the Father, and in His personal return in power and glory.
4. We believe that for the salvation of lost and sinful man, regeneration by the Holy Spirit is absolutely essential.
5. We believe in the present ministry of the Holy Spirit by whose indwelling the Christian is enabled to live a godly life.
6. We believe in the resurrection of both the saved and the lost; they that are saved unto the resurrection of life and they that are lost unto the resurrection of damnation.
7. We believe in the spiritual unity of believers in our Lord Jesus Christ.

I have read the above statement and agree to respect its content.

A PHILOSOPHY AND POLICY FOR FACULTY-STUDENT RELATIONSHIPS AND UPHOLDING THE ACADEMIC VALUES OF OMEGA GRADUATE SCHOOL

Affirmed by the Board of Regents, January, 2020 (formal adoption scheduled for April, 2020)

Omega Graduate School affirms an atmosphere of academic safety (“a safe place to think”) which promotes respect for human dignity, synergistic relationships, and personalized learning. Omega Graduate School does not tolerate disrespect or mistreatment of its students, faculty, administration, or stakeholders. Omega Graduate School affirms the autonomy of adult learners within reasonable boundaries of an accredited graduate institution and seeks to consistently affirm the goals, objectives, and creativity of adult learners in its programs, courses, and classrooms. Faculty are expected to strive to foster the individual goals of adult learners within the boundaries of established program and course outcomes.

Omega Graduate School affirms andragogy as a learning methodology, which includes a focus primarily on the educational process rather than academic content. Andragogy (Knowles, 1984) encompasses the following principles: (1) Adult Learning must be relevant, (2) Adult Learning should be experiential, (3) Adult Learning should be driven toward problem-solving, and (4) Adult Learners thrive when learning has immediate value. Based upon these principles, Omega Graduate School rejects any educational practices that inhibit the academic and professional respect of the adult learners who have entrusted their graduate education into the care of our institution.

We recognize that adult learners choose our institution to serve their needs and our orientation toward students is motivated by a philosophy of Servant Leadership. While we understand that faculty may fall short of this ideal, we will use this philosophy and policy as a measure of faculty performance. In cases where experiences have interpreted as violations of this philosophy or policy, students may engage in due process as stated in the Catalog, and inasmuch as possible, Omega Graduate School commits to strive toward mutually beneficial reconciliation in the spirit of Christian love.

This Educational Philosophy informs the internal policies of Omega Graduate School with regards to faculty-student interactions, grading, and assignment design, delivery, and differentiation. These policies are documented in the Faculty Handbook. Student related policies, such as “Due Process” can be found in the Catalog.
